

TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 1977

The Home News

LOCAL

Home News photo

A comprehensive report of the Middlesex County corrections and penal system labeled the county jail and workhouse "grossly inadequate" in most important areas and called for shorter prison terms for inmates as well as a $2.69-million building program to shift some prisoners and build new facilities for others. The report, authorized by the county freeholder board, was released yesterday. Stories and photo on page 13.

Front page side index