ROBERT CLARK WILL REPRESENT EVERYONE IN WASHINGTON, NOT JUST A CHOSEN FEW. HE WILL WORK FOR A STRONG EDUCATION SYSTEM, A STABLE SOCIAL SECURITY PROGRAM, CHILD NUTRITION, JOB TRAINING, A CLEAN ENVIRONMENT AND A SAFE AMERICA.

EDUCATION - Long before the state Education Reform Act, Robert Clark as a state legislator sought to improve education. He supports the American Defense Education Act and opposes any attempts to reduce federal aid to schools and colleges, to dismantle the Department of Education and to allow private school tuition tax credits,

SOCIAL SECURITY - Robert Clark believes Social Security is a contract between Americans and their government. He opposes any efforts to reduce benefits.

NUCLEAR FREEZE - Robert Clark supports a nuclear freeze. The United States and the Soviet Union must seek major, mutual and verifiable reductions in nuclear weapons.

ENVIRONMENT - Robert Clark supports legislation to ensure a clean environment. He supports the extension of the Superfund to clean up hazardous waste and opposes efforts to harm the effectiveness of the Clean Air and Clean Water Acts.

HOUSING - Robert Clark opposes efforts to reduce Section 8 assistance housing programs and will vote to restore cuts imposed by Ronald Reagan.

JOB TRAINING - Robert Clark supports funding to provide training and retraining to the unemployed, women in non-traditional fields and dislocated workers. He will not vote against legislation which seeks to provide job training.

CHILD NUTRITION - Robert Clark supports all efforts to restore cuts to such extremely important programs as school lunch and breakfast, food stamps and Aid to Families with Dependent Children. He opposes any attempts to hurt the funding levels for Women, Infants and Children.

ROBERT CLARK WILL WORK HARD TO REDUCE THE FEDERAL DEFICIT, BUT HE WILL NOT DO SO ON THE BACKS OF HARD-WORKING MEN AND WOMEN WHO THROUGH NO FAULT OF THEIR OWN CAN NOT ALWAYS MAKE ENDS MEET AND NEED SUPPORT AND HELP.

Rep. Robert Clark cares deeply about the people he serves. No public official has worked harder than he to provide help for those who need it most.

Born and reared in the Delta

Robert Clark was born and raised in Holmes County. His father was a school teacher fired from several jobs for helping to register and teach black people to vote. His grandfather was a preacher who was run out of Hinds County for speaking against segregation.

"They always told me things would change when young men and women would have the courage to stand up and make them change," Robert Clark recalls. "And from the time I was just a kid, I always wanted to carry on their work."

He has always been a hard worker

Robert Clark attended Jackson State University with the help of a track scholarship and a 25¢/hour custodian's job. After graduation, he taught and coached athletics at Humphreys County Training School for seven years before entering graduate school.

He earned a Master's Degree in education at Michigan State University, and then did additional graduate work at the University of Michigan. Returning to Mississippi, Representative Clark worked as a principal at several public schools in the Delta and then as the athletic director of Saints Junior College in Lexington.

Representative Clark left teaching and coaching in the mid-'60s to become director of the Holmes County anti-poverty program, the job he held until his election to the state legislature in 1967.

A widower and single parent, Robert Clark has two sons, Bryant Wondrick, 9, and Robert III, 12. He supplements his modest legislative salary by working on his small farm in Lexington.

Robert Clark
for U.S. Congress
2nd District

Robert Clark's outstanding record of public services inspires confidence

In 1967, Robert Clark became the first black person since Reconstruction to be elected to the Mississippi legislature. For the past 17 years, he has represented his Delta district with courage, skill and an unselfish determination to make life better for all Mississippians. No one has fought harder or more effectively to raise the quality of public education. No one has been more dedicated to helping the poor, the under-educated, the old, the unemployed and the disabled.

He fought a lonely battle for years

Until 1976, Robert Clark was Mississippi's only black State Representative. Because he stood up for the rights of the poor and minorities to have an equal share of Mississippi's public services and resources, he endured years of lonely struggle in the legislature, but he never gave up. And, eventually, Robert Clark's battle to make Mississippi more responsive to people in need of help earned the grudging respect, even, of some who opposed his views.

Chairman of the House Education Committee

Today, Robert Clark is Chairman of the House Education Committee and a proven legislative leader. Mississippi is a far better place because of the laws he has written and helped pass and the progressive causes he has championed. His record in such areas as education, health, social service funding, and job training speaks for itself. Robert Clark...

- Led the campaign for public kindergarten classes and compulsory school attendance in Mississippi;
- Helped write and pass the Vocational Education Bill to update vocational training programs and ensure that they meet today's job opportunities;
- Has been a leader in improving public education for all the children of Mississippi and eliminating discrimination in school funding, class size and teacher salaries;
- Authored the original Medicaid Commission bill that finally made Medicaid funds available to Mississippi's senior citizens;
- Worked to increase Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) funding and increase welfare payments to the truly needy;
- Fought for equal job opportunities in state government for minority and female workers.

Robert Clark is a widower and single parent who knows how important it is to spend time with his children. Here (right) he goes fishing with his sons, Bryant Wondrick, 9 (at left), and Robert III, 12.

As Chairman of the House Education Committee, Rep. Robert Clark has done much to improve the quality of Mississippi's public schools.

A 17-year veteran of the Mississippi legislature, Rep. Clark is a skillful lawmaker and a leader whose views command respect.

FROM: Robert Clark
RE: ABSENTEE BALLOT VOTING

The purpose of this memo is to remind you to see that the ABSENTEE BALLOT is available to all persons who will not be able to go to the polls to vote in person on November 6.

Primary Targets

1. Students attending college out of state or outside of the district.
2. Physically incapacitated (sick and shut-ins).
3. Persons who will be out of state or more than fifty miles away from home working or on business or accompanying spouse on business.
4. Persons on military duty and their dependents who are eligible to vote.

Things to Do

1. Pick up package of applications from the voter registrars office.
2. Have the announcement about absentee ballots made in all club meetings, community meetings and church gatherings.
3. Make phone calls to key leaders around the county. Ask them to assist you in determining the names and addresses of persons who need absentee ballots.
4. Distribute absentee ballot applications.
5. Assist applicants where possible in receiving the services of a Notary Public.

6. Remind persons who will be out of town that they can vote in person during office hours of the registrar any time between now and noon on November 3, 1984.
7. Contact all Ministers: ask them to advise sick and shut-in about absentee ballots. Take applications if no one in the family can do it.
8. Contact all Nursing Homes and Homes for Aged: see that those who can't go to the polls get absentee ballots. Be careful when dealing with those who are senile. They could cause problems if they forget that they have voted.

Remember

Tom Bradley won the Governorship of California among people who actually went to the polls in 1982. But had it taken away when the mostly REPUBLICAN absentee ballots were counted. Democrats can vote absentee also, it is our right. Let's not overlook the absentee ballots.

The Ten Commitments of Ronald Reagan

- (1) I Shall Forever Protect the Rights of the Unborn Child.
While Governor of California, Ronald Reagan signed into law the most liberal abortion bill in the United States.
- (2) I Shall Not Cut Social Security.
Two months after Ronald Reagan became President he cut social security: by eliminating student benefits; minimum benefits of persons 62 and older; and, elimination of the lump sum death benefit for many persons. Congress prevented several other proposed cuts.
- (3) I Shall Defend the Disabled.
In a cruel disregard for the disabled Ronald Reagan terminated the benefits of nearly 500,000 needy Americans. The courts have restored benefits in over 200,000 cases. Hundreds of thousands of other cases remain in the court at great expense to the beneficiaries.
- (4) I Shall Not Cut Medicare
"There you go again." Ronald Reagan said of Jimmy Carter in 1980 when accused of his intent to cut medicare benefits. Ronald Reagan denied that intention; however, the Reagan Administration cut the medicare program by billions between 1982 and 1985. Congress rejected a second budget cut from 1985 to 1989.
- (5) I Shall Not Raise Taxes
When Reaganomics produced the 1982 recession his Administration put through a tax increase to stimulate the economy. President Reagan signed the largest tax increase in American history (TEFRA, 1982).
- (6) I Shall Help the Poor.
The Reagan Administration's policies have doubled the number of Americans at the poverty level since Ronald Reagan became President.
- (7) I Shall Remember the Elderly for They Built America
The 1983 Reagan budget proposed a 45% cut in housing assistance for the elderly (Section 202).
- (8) I Shall Pay Tribute to the American Farmer for He Feeds America.
Farmers' net income is down by nearly 50%. Farm exports are down by over 25% and farm net worth has been reduced by about one-third. Ronald Reagan imposed economic sanctions against Soviet Poland which embargoed American farm products in 1981. The overvalued dollar which prices U.S. farm products out of the world markets is a trade barrier greater than was embargoes imposed under Nixon, Ford or Carter before Reagan.
- (9) I Shall Rebuild the American Military Might and Restore U.S. Prestige Abroad
In 1983 the U.S. Marines were forced out of Lebanon, a friendly country to which they were invited. American servicemen died, the power of a Russian ally, Syria, was increased, the defense of Israel was jeopardized and American prestige declined in Western Europe and the Middle East. A secret war continues in Central America which threatens to become a regional conflict.
- (10) I Shall Balance the Federal Budget by 1983.
Ronald Reagan's deficit is larger than all deficits of all previous presidents added together. The 1985 deficit is $175 billion forecasted to go over $200 billion next year.

Dear Dr. Harrison:

Thanks to the prayers, support and votes of the people throughout the second district, again we are the democratic nominee for congress. Of course, we are proud to carry the banner. As we move towards our anticipated victory in the November general election we are reaching out to opinion leaders like you to help us take our candidacy to the people.

As you are well aware the logistics of campaigning in such a large district is quite complex. Extending our message to folk in an area that runs 259 miles long and over 100 miles wide is a tremendous task. For one person it is nearly impossible. However, with the assistance of a number of surrogates we should be able to reach every nook and cranny of the district. We trust that we can count on you as one of those who will be able to devote some time over the next few months to help get the message to the voters across the 22 counties of the second district. Our candidate is a tireless campaigner. But, again, he is just human like the rest of us. We will need you and others to assist.

Currently we are forming a surrogate speakers bureau. As our campaign schedule becomes more crowded we will be looking to our surrogates to stand-in for Robert Clark on various occasions. If you are willing to help please let us know by return mail.

Enclosed is a list of votes my opponent cast during his first term in Congress.

I believe his voting record will hurt him in the Second Congressional District IF people know about it.

Please, use this information in speeches you might give for me, during political rallies or meetings. Make copies for gatherings of our supporters to spread the word.

Let's get the word out about my opponent. Thanks again for your help. And, if you need further information please contact my staff.

I've seen the lightning flashing And heard the thunder roll, I've felt sin's breakers dashing, Which tried to conquer my soul; I heard the voice of my Savior, He bid me still fight on- He promised never to leave me a-lone.

The world's fierce winds are blowing-Temptation's sharp and keen; I have a peace in knowing My Savior stands between; He stands to shield me from danger When all my friends are gone- He promised never to leave me, never to leave me a-lone.

He died on Cal-V'ry's mountain, For me they pierced His side, For me He opened that fountain, The crimson, cleansing tide; For me He's waiting in glory Upon His heav'n-ly throne- He promised never to leave me, never to leave me a-lone.

man who wants to go to Washington to represent us.

That man is Robert Clark, a good man;
He has ^a courage, ^{wise man;} Heart, experience and knowhow!

~~He was the~~

— Robert Clark was the first black man since Reconstruction to be elected to the Mississippi Legislature.

— Church, join with me in pray that Robert Clark will become the first black man ^{in over 100 years} since Recon. in this century to represent Mississippians in Washington

I have studied Robert Clark's background. He is a God fearing man and a church going man.

His background shows that for many years he stood up for the rights of the poor and minorities.

- He led the campaign for public kindergarten

- He worked to increase ADC funding
- He fought for equal job opportunities for

Robert Clark cares deeply about the people he serves. ^{all Mississippians} He helped to put ^{with the education reform bill that will help} ~~miss.~~ ^{all of our citizens} ~~for years to come.~~

When the floods came last year and the year before last, he personally went out to help families save their cattle and belongings.

Brothers and sisters, friends and neighbors please register to vote. Vote Robert Clark ~~our~~ representative from the 2nd Congressional District on November 6th.

Robert Clark wants to continue to serve the people of Mississippi. He wants to lead the Democratic ticket for change. Change to a Democrat that will work for all our nation's people, not just the rich & privileged.

RE: The Final Weekend Caravan

Between 9 a.m., Friday, November 2, and 7 p.m., Sunday, November 4, I plan to make at least one stop in each of the 22 counties of District 2.

The purpose of this caravan is to boost the spirit of our workers, increase voter interest in each county, and support the candidacy of friendly democratic candidates for local offices in the various localities in District 2.

Makeup of Caravan

1. Representative Clark
2. Surrogate for Mondale and Surrogate for Winter
3. National political and civil rights leaders
4. State political and civil rights leaders
5. Candidates for local and county office

Timing of Rallies and Meetings

All rallies will begin at least one half hour prior to the arrival of the main CARAVAN. An advance party will arrive at the site of the rally well in advance of the main contingent. It is also quite possible that the rally could continue after the CARAVAN moves on toward the next city.

Local musical groups (choirs, bands, combos, etc.) should be secured by the local committee to help attract and hold the crowd.

A representative from the campaign office will be in touch with the leadership in each county to arrange the details.

Because of the national interest in this campaign, it is quite possible that press will be traveling with the CARAVAN. It is therefore very important that a large show of strength be visible at each spot. It is better to have a small space which is crowded than to have a large crowd which fills only half of the room. Narrow spots are easier to fill than large open spaces. To cameras, perception of a crowd is as important as the crowd.

Possible Rally Sites

1. Courthouse steps
2. Town square
3. Schools or colleges
4. Large factories or plants at shift change time or at lunch time
5. Shopping centers or other places where crowds are already present
6. Regular meetings in progress (church services, campaign leaders' meetings, etc.)
7. Special events (fish fries, banquets, prayer breakfasts, etc.)

NOTE: IT IS IMPORTANT TO LOCATE RALLIES CLOSE TO MAIN HIGHWAY

Things Needed for Outdoor Rally

1. Portable stage or platform (a truck could serve this purpose if no other is easily available)
2. Public address system (a sound truck or car with speaker hooked to CB will serve if one is not available from a local school or church, etc.)
3. Red, white, and blue crepe paper to decorate truck or platform (balloons, Clark, Winter, Mondale/Ferraro signs--also local candidates' signs)
4. Handmade and printed signs for local candidates and Robert Clark--also for Winter, Mondale/Ferraro
5. Literature, marked sample ballots, other handouts
6. Live or recorded music and speeches ("I Have A Dream", etc.)
7. Police escorts who can meet the CARAVAN at the town limit or county line will add to the excitement and may help save time.

November 9, 1984

Dear Friend,

Now that the election is a few days behind me, I've had time to reflect upon my campaign for the Second Congressional District seat.

Though we were not successful, I believe we were able to deliver our message of fairness and justice to many, many people. I am thankful for that.

I am also thankful for your help and support. Through the efforts of people like yourself, I was able to garner 49 percent of the vote. Clearly, there are thousands and thousands of people in the district who believe in the same ideals we do.

I will now spend some time with my two boys, work on the farm and prepare for the next session of the state Legislature. If I can ever be of any assistance to you in the future, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

My thoughts are with you.

With warmest regards,

State Rep. Robert Clark
